

Vocabulary and Context Worksheet

Determine word meaning in context.

Multiple Choice Questions

Question 1

If someone's remark is "succinct," it is:

- (A) Long
- (B) Short and to the point
- (C) Rude
- (D) Complicated

Answer: (B) Short and to the point

Question 2

"Reluctant" means:

- (A) Eager
- (B) Unwilling
- (C) Quick
- (D) Resourceful

Answer: (B) Unwilling

Question 3

"Tedious" is most like:

- (A) Fun
- (B) Lengthy and boring
- (C) Sharp
- (D) Simple

Answer: (B) Lengthy and boring

Question 4

A “coincidence” is when two things happen:

- (A) By plan
- (B) On purpose
- (C) At the same time by chance
- (D) Unsuccessfully

Answer: (C) At the same time by chance

Question 5

“Credible” most nearly means:

- (A) Unbelievable
- (B) Believable
- (C) Careless
- (D) Strange

Answer: (B) Believable

Question 6

To “assess” a situation is to:

- (A) Ignore
- (B) Evaluate
- (C) Dismiss
- (D) Refuse

Answer: (B) Evaluate

Question 7

“Obsolete” means:

- (A) New
- (B) Ancient
- (C) No longer used
- (D) Innovative

Answer: (C) No longer used

Question 8

To “advocate” for something is to:

- (A) Oppose
- (B) Support

- (C) Forget
- (D) Punish

Answer: (B) Support

Question 9

Which word means “extremely important”?

- (A) Marginal
- (B) Crucial
- (C) Tentative
- (D) Excess

Answer: (B) Crucial

Question 10

“Infer” means to:

- (A) Guess randomly
- (B) Demand
- (C) Deduce from evidence
- (D) Ignore

Answer: (C) Deduce from evidence

Summary

This worksheet tested your knowledge of vocabulary and word meaning in context through a series of multiple-choice questions. You were asked to identify the correct meaning of words such as succinct, reluctant, tedious, coincidence, credible, assess, obsolete, advocate, crucial, and infer.